Sunday School at The Church of the Holy Trinity

Our Mission

The mission of the Sunday School of The Church of the Holy Trinity is to provide for the youth of the church and community an opportunity to learn Christian beliefs and values and to encourage spiritual growth.

History of the Church

The Church of the Holy Trinity was founded in 1953. It is a parish of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland. There are active guilds and groups to provide members an opportunity to foster the operation of the church.

All are welcomed to worship with us.

Sunday School Goals

To teach basic Christian beliefs through scripture, prayer, music, and personal stories

To enroll children from the church and the community, ages 5 to 15 in Sunday morning classes

To provide an opportunity for children to share their learning with others

To register for Sunday School, please complete the form below and return it to the church office or mail to:
